YAY! WE GET TO HORSE SHOW! NOW LET'S BE RESPONSIBLE AND NOT MESS THIS UP.....

HSITP & Hunt Country Horse Shows are taking into consideration the published guidelines of the CDC and State and local authorities as well as USEF. The following protocols are in effect:

- The event is not open to the general public and is considered a “closed event/horse show”, open to pre-registered exhibitors and their designated attendees only.
- Each rider is limited to three individuals in attendance at the arenas ie; Trainer, 2 Parents.
- Grand Oaks is a USEF licensed Elite Training Facility, therefore we must abide by the USEF COVID 19 guidelines that require show staff and exhibitors/families (not mounted on a horse) to wear facial masks. Those exhibitors who do not desire to wear a mask while on the facility grounds should not attend and may be asked to leave if they refuse to do so.
- Gates may not be held for trainer conflicts due to the reqt to limit riders at each arena. Know your schedule, learn your courses and be ready to ride. Trainers—use assistants if you have them or modify your entries to ensure coverage. If you need to change a rider from a section A, B or C, it has to be done before Friday at 5pm.
- Trainer and rider only allowed within 50’ of the ingate area. Rotations of 4 for all hunter/ equitation/novice over fences classes. Divisions will be divided into sections as needed to limit the numbers of exhibitors at the arena.
- You may bring your own chairs and sit following socially distant responsible guidelines No standing, chairs, groups or seating within 50’ of any ingate area.
- Ring Status may be texted for this horse show to designated trainers or numbers as provided on the entry form.
- We will start running credit cards for those who’ve finished showing Saturday at 5pm and finish Sunday by 8pm.
- Declined credit cards will be assessed a $50 NSF fee.
- Do not come to the show office or ribbon/award areas with more than one person to wait in line. Social distance guidelines mandate 6’ between customers.. The show secretaries may be located outside on the porch of the pavilion barn. Only one person is allowed to work with each show secretaries or award/ribbon staff. A line will form out into the parking lot. 6’ Social Distancing enforced. One person in line please for service.... Add/Scratches are to be done via text to 352-406-9886. Must contain rider number and class number info.
- All check outs will be done via Express check out and statements emailed to the email address on the entry form. Do not come to the show office to check out. Entry/Account questions may be texted or called to the show secretary at 352-406-9886 before, during or after the show. Horse Show and/or Grand Oaks Management may ask any individual to leave the Horse Show Property should that individual choose to willfully ignore published protocols and subsequent instruction
